Preparation and Participation

The success of the class discussions depends largely on the level of your preparation. You are expected to attend all classes and participate fully in every class.

Preparation and participation are key to success in this class. Learning any language to a high level requires good time management, self-discipline, patience, and regular practice and revision: by making preparation a graded element, I intend to reward this necessary effort. Preparing for class will include completing homework assignments, revision of course materials, and memorising and practising new materials.

knowledge of Greek language. This is to incentivise you to keep up your revision of vocabulary and grammar after we have finished covering the textbook.
