Submission of annotated bibliography and proposal: This assignment is to be submitted via OWL. Feedback and marks will be sent to you over OWL within three weeks.

Submission of final essay: The final essay is also to be submitted via OWL; feedback and marks will be sent to you over OWL within three weeks.

Late submission: Assignments submitted late without academic accommodation (see above) will be deducted 5% per day, including weekends. These late assignments should be submitted to the Essay Dropbox located outside UC 173.

Attendance:

Regular attendance is a good strategy for acquiring a full set of class notes; active participation in classes but also to prepare for them by keeping up with the readings, bringing your custom course reader so as to follow-and participate in-class discussions. Please note that excessive absenteeism is grounds for barring students from the final exam. The academic calendar states: "Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course" (p. 35). A meeting with your professor regarding your essay proposal and final essay is mandatory; this meeting will count towards a portion of your participation mark. Bonus attendance marks will be awarded to students who attend Dr. J. Jack Partridge's lecture on Feb. 6th at 5-7pm. An important essay on drag king subcultures is included among your critical readings.

Accommodation

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/or assignments worth 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department. Documentation shall be provided together with a request for relief specifying the nature of the accommodation being requested. The UWO Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness and further information regarding this policy can be found at http://uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/accommodation_medical.pdf.
