

What does it mean to be a citizen? What is the making of a nation and its citizens? Spanning the period from imperial exploration to the present day, this course ~~explores~~ examines Canada's vibrant literary culture. Students will encounter a range of texts and authors, from accounts of early explorers to current internationally acclaimed and award-winning authors.

ACT INFORMATION TIMES

All required papers must be submitted for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted will be added as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com. Also, see the Department of English web page for information on Plagiarism.

