Department of English & Writing Studies

Class Conduct:

All students are expected to conduct themselves according to high standards of respect and civility in the classroom. To that end, students are asked to respect the following guidelines:

- 1. Frame questions and differences of opinion in a constructive and professional manner.
- 2. Respect the rights of each student and of the instructor to speak without having to talk over other voices.
- 3. Turn off cell-phones and headsets before the start of class, and for the duration of the class. Note: this means no texting during class.
- 4. Refrain from reading newspapers/ magazines/ books and from doing work for other dasses.
- 5. Laptops and other electronic devices are not permitted in class.

Email Conduct:

Please address and sign all email correspondence appropriately. Typically, emails will be answered within 48 hours, although I do not always answer emails in the evening or on weekends. If you have not heard from me after 48 hours, please re-send your message: do not assume that I have received your email if you do not receive a reply.

Academic Accommodation:

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/ or assignments must apply to the Academic Counseling office of their home faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department.
