Methods of Evaluation

The final mark for the course will be arrived at as follows:

Class participation and attendance	5%
Company assignment #1	10%
Company assignment #2	10%
Short essay (4-5 pages)	15%
Research paper (7-8 pages)	25%
Final exam (cumulative)	35%

A student must receive a passing mark for both term work and the final examination in order to receive a passing mark for the course. This applies to all courses in all programs offered by the department. Students whose term and final exam marks average 50% or above, even though one of the two is a failure, shall receive a default mark of 48%. Please note: The department of English & Writing Studies does not release final grades. All undergraduate grade reports will be available online from the Office of the Registrar.

Students are fully responsible for looking at and being familiar with the information posted on the department website at <http://www.uwo.ca/english/undergraduate/info%20for%20students.html#grade>.

Timetable (tentative):

Overview of Course Assignments

Attendance:

Attendance is expected in this class, and if you want to do well, you need to come to class regularly. If there is a reason why you are not attending class, please come and speak to me about it. The process for requesting academic accommodation on medical or other grounds is descri

Students anticipating an absence for a major religious holiday are responsible for notifying the instructor in writing of anticipated absences due to their observance of such holidays as soon as possible, and no later than one week before a test or two weeks before a major exam. Information regarding dates of major religious holidays may be obtained through

How to submit a paper late:

If you are submitting a paper late, you must upload it to OWL (which functions as the official timestamp) and put an identical copy in the essay drop box outside the English department in AHB 2G02. Both copies must arrive on the same day. Late penalties will be applied for each day of the week, including weekends and holidays.

Company Performances:

This assignment is modelled after ones designed by Kim Solga and Jo Devereux in Theatre Studies. In some classes, we will forgo the formalities of a traditional university lecture and get down to the business of performance. I will be dividing the class into four groups with roughly eight students each. In select weeks you, the students, will run an hour of class.

Our performance hour will begin with a scene study presentation by the group designated, for that week, as THE COMPANY. Each Company will be required to do two presentations over the course of the term.
