1. "STUDENTS MUST PASS BOTH TERM WORK AND THE FINAL EXAMINATION (IN COURSES WITH FINAL EXAMINATIONS) IN ORDER TO PASS THE COURSE. STUDENTS WHO FAIL THE FINAL EXAMINATION (REGARDLESS OF THEIR TERM MARK) AUTOMATICALLY FAIL THE COURSE."
2. Late Policy. Late essays will be penalized at the rate of 1% per day (including Saturdays and Sundays). If you foresee that you will be unable to submit an essay on time, please contact me before the essay is due. Essays that are not submitted in class should be placed in the essay drop box located outside of University College 173. Please note: "The last day of scheduled classes in any course will be the last day on which assignments will be accepted for credit in a course."
3. You are expected to retain a copy of the final draft of each essay. If a submitted essay is lost, you will be asked to submit the duplicate for grading.
4. Plagiarism is a serious offence. Please read carefully the statements on plagiarism found in the "Information for Students" section of the Department of English website.

"Plagiarism (the unacknowledged use of another person's work) is one of the most serious academic offences, since it involves fraud and misrepresentation. In plagiarizing, one is in effect claiming another person's words or ideas or data as one's own work, and thus misrepresenting material subject to academic evaluation. It is necessary, therefore, that plagiarism carry appropriate penalties. These are within the discretion of the Chair of Undergraduate Studies, but may include failure of a course or a grade of zero on an assignment, without the privilege of resubmitting it.”

“Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations.”

“All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>).”
