Don Wright Faculty of Music

Canada Research Chair (Tier 2) in Music, Equity and Social Justice

The Don Wright Faculty of Music at Western University invites applications for a Tier 2 Canada Research Chair (CRC) in Music, Equity and Social Justice, at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor, Probationary (tenure-track). This position is open to candidates with expertise in musicology, ethnomusicology, performance, and popular music creators and scholars. A CRC position typically provides a significant reduction to regular full-time teaching duties over the term of the award, permitting exceptional researchers the time to make meaningful contributions to their field.

The successful candidate will hold a PhD or DMA in Music or a relevant related field. They will possess a strong record of publications and/or creative activities, appropriate to their field and career stage and with demonstrable international impact. Their research will approach music in relation to issues of equity and/or social justice, providing intellectual and/or artistic leadership in how music can play a role in global efforts to afford within the next five to ten years, and possessing the potential to attract, develop, and retain world-class students.

in accordance with the regulations set for Tier 2 Canada Research Chairs (www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca)

_____), Tier 2 chairs are intended for exceptional emerging scholars (i.e., candidates must have less than 10 years of experience as an active researcher in their field at the time of nomination). Applicants who are more than 10 years from having earned their highest degree (and where career breaks exist, such as maternity, parental or extended sick leave, clinical training, etc.) may have their eligibility for a Tier 2 chair assessed through the program's Tier 2 justification process; please contact Research Development at the University of Western Ontario at ResearchWesternCRC@uwo.ca for more information. Please consult the Canada Research Chair website for full information, including further details on eligibility criteria: https://www.chairs-chaire.gc.ca/program-programme/nomination-mise_en_candidature-eng.aspx
