consequence it is important that students attend and participate in each of the laboratory classes (and related lecture). Therefore, attendance will be taken and if no good reason is presented for missing a class, a 2% deduction from the final grade will be assessed for each laboratory class (in whole or in part) missed. Also, student participation will be monitored by the laboratory leader and GTAs and if, throughout the term, you fail to actively participate in laboratory activities, a 5% deduction from the final grade will be assessed.

4. Written documentation: Whenever possible, students who require academic accommodation should provide notification and documentation in advance of due dates, examinations, etc. stating specific reasons and disrespectful, and will not be tolerated. Students engaging in such behaviour may be asked to leave the room. Cellular phones, pagers, and text-messaging devices are disruptive when they ring in class. If you must bring these with you, please set them on silent mode or turn them off during class. Failure to do so may result in your being asked to leave.

8. Laptops for the purpose of viewing lecture material and typing lecture notes are permitted in class, but please be respectful to your fellow students and turn them sound off. If complaints are received from other students regarding noise or disruptive behaviour (e.g., watching videos on YouTube.com, updating your Facebook status, playing Solitaire), your classroom laptop privileges will be revoked.
