NOTE: All course information including grades, assignment outlines, deadlines, etc. are available via OWL. Check the website regularly for course announcements.

You are responsible for ensuring that you have successfully completed all course pre-requisites, and that you have not taken an anti-requisite course.

Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

NOTE: If you wish to enrol in this course without the stated pre-requisite(s), you must obtain written approval from the course instructor. The approval should then be forwarded to your academic counsellor.

My Course Description:

Do you intend to work in a sport, physical activity, or health related organization?

If yes then this course will be essential for you. Organizations are an important feature in all realms of society, and kinesiology is no different. You are likely here because you have an interest in sport/physical activity/health and therefore the functioning of the organizations that service these activities. This course is intended to provide you with an overview of organizational management from a macro-perspective as it applies to sport, physical activity, health and

Learning Outcomes/Schedule:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify and delineate theoretical terms, concepts, and philosophies related to sports, physical activity, and recreation management.
2. Analyze and compare the context of the management across sectors in physical activity.
3. Synthesize management concepts and research through Community Engaged Learning and Projects.
4. Develop

course, a reference to the Guidelines for their use (Guidelines are shown below). Instructors are to communicate clearly to students clickers may be used by the instructor for data gathering and for evaluating the students, and why they cannot be used by anyone but the student (since the students involved in misuse of a clicker may be charged with a scholastic offence).

2. Academic offences: They are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site:

https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf

9. Contingency Plan for an In-Person Class Pivoting to 100% Online Learning: In the event of a COVID-19 resurgence during the course that necessitates the course delivery moving away from face-to-face interaction, all remaining course content will be delivered entirely online, either synchronously (i.e., at the times indicated in the timetable) or asynchronously (e.g., posted on OWL for students to view at their convenience). The grading scheme will not change. Any remaining assessments will also be conducted online as determined by the course instructor

10. Online Etiquette: Some components of this course will involve online interactions. To ensure the best experience for both you and your classmates, please honour the following rules of etiquette:

please use your computer and/or laptop if possible (as opposed to a cell phone or tablet) ensure that you are in a private location to protect the confidentiality of discussions in the event that a class discussion deals with sensitive or personal material to minimize background noise, kindly mute your microphone for the entire class until you are invited to speak, unless directed otherwise

[suggested for classes larger than 30 students] In order to give us optimum bandwidth and web quality, please turn off your video camera for the entire class unless you are invited to speak

[suggested for cases where video is used] please be prepared to turn your video camera off

unless invited by your instructor, do not share your screen in the meeting

The course instructor will act as moderator for the class and will deal with any questions from participants. To participate please consider the following:

you before beginning your comment or question

remember to unmute your microphone and turn on your video camera before speaking
