The course focuses on the signifi incie includint

Assistance with Class Material

- The preferred means for students to get assistance with course material requirements is to ask questions during lectures. Remember, it is unlikely that you are the only one with the question/problem.
- A second option is to ask the course instructor or TAs during office hours, or before or after class. It is also possible to contact the course instructor via email; however, the sheer number of students in this course may not allow for a timely response.

Accommodation Policies

Students with disabilities work with Accessible Education (formerly SSD) which provides recommen

Students should consult the University's list of recognized religious holidays, and should give reasonable notice in writing, prior to the holiday, to the Instructor and an Academic Counsellor if their course requirements will be affected by a religious observance. Additional information is given in the Western Multicultural Calendar.

7. Examination Conflicts: A student with examinations having flexible submission times (e.g., where one or more examination is a take-home examination) cannot request alternative arrangements unless a conflict cannot be avoided by rescheduling writing the exam to a different time within the window specified by the instructor. This applies to direct conflicts as well as “heavy load” conflicts (e.g., three exams within a 23-hour period). The student should discuss any concerns about a potential conflict and/or request accommodation with their academic counselling unit prior to the deadline to drop a course without academic penalty

In the case of online examinations, an “Examination Conflict Room,” which may be assigned when a student is scheduled to write two proctored exams concurrently, will be interpreted as arrangements for continuous proctoring.

8. Grades: Where possible assignment objectives and rubrics will be posted on OWL. Should you have a concern regarding the grade you received for an assignment or feel that it is unfair in any way, you must wait 24 hours from the date of the grade before contacting the instructor.
