

Investigating Narrative Skills using Questions: An insight into Macro and Micro-structures of Language

Diya Nair, Theresa Pham & Lisa Archibald, The University of Western Ontario
dnair3@uwo.ca

Introduction:

Narrative abilities: complex language skills support language development and academic success

- Macrostructure: story elements
- Microstructure: conjunctions, mental verbs reference pronouns

Story generation in young children improved when asked questions prior to production (Silva and Cain, 2019)

-