

Tincani (2004) used a single-and protesting (i.e., hitting, crying). He had slightly impaired motor abilities and could imitate 3-4 motor movements. He was unable to discriminate between graphics and/or symbols and pictures and was unable

