POLICY

It is the responsibility of each employee to report health and safety concerns which affect them or which affect other employees. While it is expected that this will be done most of the time informally by oral reporting to the supervisor, occasions arise where the employee may wish to put their suggestion in writing and receive a written reply.

7 KH I R O O R Z L Q J S U R F H G X U H V D S S O \ W R (see below) The employee must complete the top half of the form, including the following:

- (a) their name and signature;
- (b) name of their supervisor;
- (c) the location and description of the hazard.

The supervisor shall complete and sign the response section of the form and return it to the person reporting the hazard. A work order number must be generated for each safety hazard report.

For matters that are not rectified after a reasonable length of time (20 work days), the employee
