Academic Policies and Statements

Technical difficulty

Technical difficulties are not considered grounds for late or absent submissions. Technical difficulties include: French keyboard issues, audio, video, lost data, internet connection, bottlenecks on busy network, etc. Since these do happen, please never wait to the last moment to complete work online.

If you do not receive an automatic confirmation upon submitting an assignment, or if for any reason you are not sure your work was submitted properly, it is your responsibility to contact the Instructor within 12 hours by email and explain your concern or technical difficulty. You will be requested to provide documentation (screen capture, date stamp, etc.) proving that the assignment was completed on time and that you attempted to submit it.

In only rare and exceptional circumstances is accommodation granted by the Department in such a case.

Students are advised to submit their work well before the deadline posted on the site, so as to avoid being caught in a rush to submit assignments on OWL at the same time.

Communication with the Instructor about course-related matters

Instructors post regular public announcements that students receive on the « Announcements » section in Owl. Announcements for this course are not sent to your email, just to the Owl site, so do check the Owl site daily.

Instructors will send private messages to students using these messages from within Owl (NOT from their own email application).

Students
course-related matters.

avoid email for normal business pertaining to this online course.

keep a copy of all written correspondence with the Instructor for the duration of the course.

Absence from Course Commitments

In the interest of the health and safety of students and health care providers, you are no longer required to seek a medical note for absences this term. You are required to self-report every day that you are ill and unable to complete course commitments. Students should communicate promptly with their instructor.

Academic Offenses

Academic offences are taken seriously, and students are directed here to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence.

Accessibility Statement

Please contact the course instructor if you require material in an alternate format or if you require any other arrangements to make this course more accessible to you. You may also wish to contact Accessible Education (AE) at 661-2111 x 82147 for any specific question regarding an accommodation or review The policy on Accommodation for Students with Disabilities.

Correspondence Statement

The centrally administered e-mail account provided to students will be considered the individual's university e-mail address. It is the responsibility of the account holder to ensure that e-mail received from the University at his/her official university address is attended to in a timely manner. You can read about the privacy and security of the UWO email accounts here.

Turnitin and other similarity review software

All assignments will be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. Students will be able to view their results before the final submission. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between Western University and Turnitin.com.
