3. Where to Go for Help

The website of the Office of the Registrar is a valuable resource for information about many administrative aspects of your studies at Western: <http://www.registrar.uwo.ca/>
If you have any concerns about your progress with the academic material in a course, you should not hesitate to contact your instructor.

5. Debarment from Final Examination for Excessive Unjustified Absence

With the exception of distance studies and on-line courses, attendance in all classes is an obligatory component of all courses in the Department of French Studies.

The UWO Handbook of Academic and Scholarship Policy [5] states the following: Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the Department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of registration.

6. Academic Appeals

The UWO Handbook of Academic and Scholarship Policy sets out the policy for grade appeals [6]

Students should note that the first step to take if they wish to contest a mark is to discuss the matter with the instructor. A student who wishes to pursue an appeal after consulting the instructor must appeal in writing to the Undergraduate Chair of the Department of French Studies, Dr. Karin Schwerdtner, kschwerd@uwo.ca.

Instructors in the Department of French Studies will not entertain requests to have a mark for external reasons (e.g. maintaining a scholarship or gaining admission to a professional school or other academic program). In order to be given consideration, any academic appeal or informal request for reconsideration of a grade must be based on appropriate grounds of the kind set out in the UWO appeals policy.
