This is an interdisciplinary Experiential Learning Course on Rwanda, based in the Department of French Studies. It provides students an opportunity to learn about Rwandan society, and about themselves by serving in an international social and cultural setting. The readings for the course will deal with issues related to the history and culture of Rwanda and will offer an in

By the end of the course you should:

be familiar with aspects of Rwandan history and culture understand the nature of the Rwandan genocide from multiple perspectives and how the country is currently dealing with the aftermath be aware of cultural and personal biases towards groups, places and events and have worked to overcome these or understand them in new way have added to your personal growth by sharing your thoughts, opinions and feelings about your experiences in insightful and supportive group reflections be aware of how experiential learning (and in this case international service-learning) can dramatically enhance the academic learning process
