Lieu du cours : AHB – 1B06

Heure du cours: 18h30-21h30

Description du cours

Le cours d'introduction à l'ancien français poursuit un double objectif : permettre aux étudiants de comprendre les plus anciens textes de la littérature française et les amener à expliquer et à analyser les phénomènes grammaticaux qui caractérisent cet état de langue. On accordera également une importance primordiale au passage du latin au français. La connaissance des mécanismes qui ont marqué l'évolution phonétique et la formation des paradigmes

Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness:

http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic_policies/rights_responsibilities.html

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/or assignments worth 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department. A student seeking academic accommodation for any work worth less than 10% must contact the instructor and follow the course specific instructions provided on the course outline. Final examinations must be written at the scheduled time unless formal alternative arrangements for a Special Examination have been approved (by the instructor, the Department and the Home Faculty Dean's Office) based on valid documented grounds.

Support services

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Health and Wellness website http://www.health.uwo.ca/mental_health for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

Statement on Plagiarism, Cheating and other Scholastic Offences

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence in the Academic Handbook available on the Academic Calendar website, here: <http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2014/pg113.html>

Policy on Attendance

“Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of Registration.” (http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic_policies/examinations.html)
