Taking Online Tests and Quizzes

Code of conduct

Distance learning can only work if students live by the same ethics online as on campus.

By registering in this online course, you are agreeing to the University of Western Ontario Code of Student Conduct (<http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/board/code.pdf>) and the Scholastic Discipline For Undergraduate Students (<http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2016/pg113.html>).

Ultimately, each student is responsible for his or her learning achievements, and this is why we trust that you will take online examinations as you would on campus, and this includes explicitly not seeking outside help (human, printed, software, web, etc.) when no indications otherwise permit you to do so.

A quiet setting

Some online tests are metered and cannot be interrupted, so make sure to have a quiet environment.

Turn your phone off, as well as all messaging or email software that could distract you with noises or pop-up windows.

To avoid possible software glitches, before taking a test online, it is advisable to restart your computer and launch only one browser application, with only one window open, and leave no other programs running in the background.

At the end, make sure you save all your answers before you submit for grading.

Submitting an assignment

Accommodation Policies

Students with disabilities work with Accessible Education (formerly SSD) which provides recommendations for accommodation based on medical documentation or psychological and cognitive testing. The accommodation policy can be found here: Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities.

Academic Consideration for Student Absence

Students will have up to two (2) opportunities during the regular academic year to use an on-line portal to self-report an absence during the term, provided the following conditions are met: the absence is no more than 48 hours in duration, and the assessment for which consideration is being sought is worth 30% or less of the student's final grade. Students are expected to contact their instructors within 24 hours of the end of the period of the self-reported absence, unless noted on the syllabus. Students are not able to use the selfreporting option in the following circumstances:

- for exams scheduled by the Office of the Registrar (e.g., December and April exams)
- absence of a duration greater than 48 hours,
- assessments worth more than 30% of the student's final grade,
- if a student has already used the self-reporting portal
