4. Description de cours

Anti-requis : FR-290E et FR-2600E

L'ancien cours d'une année «Introduction à la littérature française (FR-2600E)» a été séparé en deux cours indépendants d'un semestre : FR-2605 et FR-2606. Ce cours constitue le premier volet sur le plan historique, mais il n'est pas obligatoire de le suivre avant le FR-2606.

Description

Ce cours vise à familiariser l'étudiant/e avec l'histoire littéraire française du Moyen Âge, de la Renaissance, du XVII^e et du XVIII^e siècle. Le cours permet d'acquérir une meilleure compréhension de la littérature française grâce à l'étude des liens qui existent entre les périodes historiques, les grands courants esthétiques et l'ent

À NOTER:

UWO Bookstore has a few ways books will be reaching students for the fall. First, students can order books from our website and have the hard copies shipped to them, if they are studying remotely for the fall term. Students on campus will have a ‘curbside pickup’ option, where they will be sent to a designated location on campus for easy pickup. We will also have the store open to a limited number of students at a time.

Policy on Attendance

«Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of Registration.» (http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic_policies/examinations.html)
