Preamble Whereas The University of Western Ontario hereby applies for special legislation varying the provisions of its Act of incorporation in relation to its organization, government and administration; and whereas it is expedient to grant the application;

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

- Interpretation 1. (1) In this Act,
- (a) "academic staff" means those persons employed by the University whose duties are primarily those of performing and administering teaching and research functions and who are included in the instructor, lecturer and professorial ranks;
 - (b) "academic unit" means a faculty, school, college or other academic division however designated by the University which offers programs leading to a degree;
 - (c) "academic year" means the academic year as determined by the University
 - (d) "administrative staff" means those employees of the University who are not members of the academic staff;

Application of statute of limitations to property

6.(1) All real property vested in the Board shall, as far as the application of any statute of limitations is concerned, including any statute limiting or defining the period for the investigation of titles, be deemed to have been and to be real property vested in the Crown for the public use of the Province of Ontario.

Power to deal with realty and personalty R.S.O. 1980,c. 219

(2) The University has, in addition to the powers, rights and privileges mentioned in section 26 of the Interpretation Act, power to purchase or otherwise acquire, take or receive, by gift, bequest or devise, and to hold and enjoy without licence in mortmain and without limitation as to the period of holding any estate or property whatsoever, whether real or personal, and to sell, grant, convey, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof from time to time and as occasion may require, and to acquire other estate or property in addition thereto or in place thereof.

Land vested in Board not liable to expropriation

7. Real property vested in the Board shall not be subject to expropriation by any person possessing the power to expropriate land or interests in land, except a municipal corporation, unless the Act conferring the power to expropriate on such person makes express reference to such real property.
