

Academic Sanctions

Registration in the University and the right to access the library, residences, specialized equipment and other University facilities implies a commitment on the part of the student to use such facilities in accordance with established rules.

In instances of misuse of University facilities and non-payment of prescribed tuition and other fees or fines or of delinquency in the return or replacement of University property on loan, the University shall seal the academic record. When an academic record is sealed, the student will not be able to:

In addition, the University may:

- a) View grades
- b) Register in future courses
- c) Receive transcripts or a degree diploma
- d) Obtain admission or readmission

The above prohibitions shall be in force until such time as indebtedness to the University, including payment of fee for removal of the seal, has been cleared to the satisfaction of the University.
