COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Art Now! will facilitate a broader understanding of issues in contemporary art through selected readings, guest speakers and exhibition tours. This yearlong course will encompass a dual focus on practice and criticism, as well as public engagement. Assignments will help develop the written abilities of students, to further enhance their critical observations and capacity to articulate themselves.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Depth and Breadth of Knowledge

Students will acquire a broad knowledge of key critical and theoretical frameworks that pertain to the topics discussed over the term, as well as the ability to engage with and analyze contemporary work and writing.

Knowledge of Methodologies

Students will acquire discursive and theoretical vocabularies that are utilized in debates within contemporary art, and they will demonstrate their knowledge of the field both orally and in writing.

Communication Skills

Students will be able to communicate in writing and orally regarding their projects and regarding relevant art and culture, and will recognize the range of language suited to differing communication opportunities.

Autonomy and Professional Capacity

An understanding of a range of opportunities for artists within and beyond the academic setting, and an awareness of the routes that must be taken to make advancements toward professional practice.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS / EVALUATION:

-Students are expected to attend all class sessions and be prepared for and participate in all lectures, reading discussions, work periods and/or critiques. Under university regulations, if a student misses 15% of their classes, without written corroboration for health or bereavement, they can be debarred from participation in final tests, evaluations and/or critiques. If a student is consistently absent from a 3-hour class for one hour, they will exceed the 15% cut off.

-Students are expected to complete all assignments on time. Failure to complete assignments without prior arrangements with the instructor will result in a failing grade. With prior discussion, students may hand in late work with a 2% per day deduction from the assignment. Extensions will be given upon official

-Evaluation of major course works will be balanced between critical writing skills and the demonstration of informed and well-developed insights about selected topics in contemporary art.

50-59 (Marginal, D) - The studio work shows less than adequate engagement with the topic and with the material covered by the course. The studio work waivers in its attempt to respond to assignment parameters and tends to be simplistic. Engagement with studio production demonstrates less than a basic mastery of techniques. Background preparation and research, engagement with process and outcome of the studio production is less than satisfactory.

Below 50 (Unacceptable, F) - The studio work demonstrates a failure to comprehend/engage the topic. The studio work is incomplete and lacks redeeming creative merit. The work clearly does not meet the minimal requirements of the assignment. Background preparation and research, engagement with process and outcome of the studio production is unacceptable.

POLICIES

Prerequisite Checking:

You are responsible for ensuring that you have successfully completed all course prerequisites and that you have not taken an antirequisite course. Lack of prerequisites may not be used as basis of appeal. If you are not eligible for a course, you may be removed from it at any time, and you will receive no adjustment to your fees. These decisions cannot be appealed.
