Attendance at class is required to improve as a writer. Here is the Writing Studies attendance policy in this class:

You may miss up to the equivalent of one week of class of class meetings during the term without explanation. That means that the week you miss will be recorded as absences but excused provided you don't miss any more.

However, if you miss a total of three full weeks of class, your final grade will be reduced by 10% (e.g. an earned final grade of 80% will be reported as a final grade of 72).

If you miss a total of more than three weeks of class meetings, your final grade will be reduced by 15% (e.g. an earned final grade of 80% will be reported as a final grade of 68).

This policy will be waived only for medical or compassionate reasons. If you have good reasons for waiving an absence of one class meeting (e.g. if you've missed three hours, and need or want to miss another class meeting) discuss these reasons with your instructor within one week of that absence. If your absence is extended and prolonged (over one week of continuous non-attendance), then you should discuss it with your academic advisor in your home faculty, who may require documentation. That advisor may then contact all of your instructors. See also: ' ' below.

_____: a class meeting missed in order to write a test, exam, or other form of 'make-up class' in another course ____ count as non-attendance, and ____ attract penalties as defined above if applicable. Instructors at the University of Western Ontario _____ a student to write a make-up test or similar at times which conflict with that student's other scheduled class times. If you are asked or 'required' to do this, you should immediately contact an academic counsellor in your Dean's office. If you elect to miss a class in order to write such a test, that is _____ choice; your absence will not be excused.
