

3901G: Hitting the Right Notes: Lyric Writing

Winter 2020

Section 001

M 12:30 3:30pm, UC-1220

Instructor: David Barrick

Email: dbarric@uwo.ca

Office: UC 1425

Office hours: M & TU 3:30 4:30pm

Course Objectives

This course introduces students to the basics of effective lyric writing in several forms/genres using tools such as prosody, sensory images, repetition, fictional persona, and narrative forms. After analyzing the work of accomplished songwriters, students will workshop their own lyrics while building towards a thematically coherent final project.

Students who successfully complete Writing 3901G should be able to do the following:

- Generate ideas and sensory imagery for lyrics through object writing exercises
- Write lyrics in basic metrical form that will allow them to be set to music
- Understand the different conventions of several lyrical genres (including spoken word)
- Analyze the work of accomplished songwriters
- Understand and articulate how different musical settings can help support the content of a lyric
- Understand the roles of persona, narrative, and performance in the writing of lyrics
- Work effectively with classmates, giving and receiving constructive feedback
- Incorporate feedback into revisions of course work

Required Texts

Pattison, Pat. Writing Better Lyrics (WBL). Second edition. Cincinnati: Writer's Digest Books, 2012.

Zollo, Paul. Songwriters on Songwriting (SOS). Fourth edition. Cincinnati: Da Capo Press, 2003.

Students must have access to YouTube and/or iTunes for songs in weekly playlists; access to Garage Band (or other recording software) is ideal but not mandatory.

A bound notebook for writing exercises is strongly recommended.

Course Requirements

Term Work

Assignment Format

All assignments must be typed and stapled; make sure that prose assignments are double-spaced and that verse assignments are single-spaced. All assignments must have your name, course name, section number, and the instructor's name on the first page. Whenever using sources in a paper, you will be expected to follow MLA style.

Submitting Assignments

Assignments are due in-class on the date specified on the schedule. Late assignments will be penalized 5% per day unless I have granted you an extension. You must talk to your instructor about extensions ahead of the due date; they are not automatic.

In this course you will be required to submit the final version of each of your written assignments electronically, through OWL, to Turnitin.com. If necessary, please submit assignments to the Department of English and Writing Studies Drop Box outside of University College 2401, making sure you include name, the course code, and your name on the first page. Do not fax or email assignments. Also, be aware that you are responsible for keeping copies of all assignments submitted.

Attendance policies

Attendance at class is required to improve as a writer. Here is the Writing Studies attendance policy in this class:

You may miss up to three hours (the equivalent of one week of class) of class meetings during the term without explanation. That means that the first three class hours you miss will be recorded as absences but excused provided you don't miss any more.

However, if you miss a total of four to nine class hours (the equivalent of up to three full weeks of class), your final grade will be reduced by 10% (e.g. an earned final grade of 80% will be reported as a final grade of 72).

If you miss a total of more than nine hours of class meetings (the equivalent of more than three weeks of class meetings) your final grade will be reduced by 15% (e.g. an earned final grade of 80% will be reported as a final grade of 68).

This policy will be waived only for medical or compassionate reasons. If you have good reasons for waiving an absence of one class meeting (e.g. if you've missed three hours, and need or want to miss another class meeting) discuss these reasons with your instructor within one week of that absence. If your absence is extended and prolonged (over one week of continuous non-attendance), then you should discuss it with your academic advisor in your home faculty, who may require documentation. That advisor may then contact all of your instructors. See also: 'Medical Accommodation Policy' below.

Note: a class meeting missed in order to write a test, exam, or other form of 'make-up class' in another course will count as non-attendance, and will attract penalties as defined above if applicable. Instructors at Western University shall not require a student to write a make-up test or similar at times which conflict with that student's other scheduled class times. If you are asked or 'required' to do this, you should immediately contact an academic counsellor in your Dean's office. If you elect to miss a Writing class in order to write such a test in another class, that is your choice; your absence will not be excused.

Attendance also extends to tardiness. If you are more than 20 minutes late, you will be penalized an hour of attendance. Please make every effort to be on time as late entry can disrupt the flow of discussion in our class. Early departures from class, which have not been previously arranged with the instructor, will also be counted as an absence. If you leave during the break, you will be docked an hour of attendance.

Classroom Policies

You will be expected to read all the chapters assigned from your textbook before coming to class. Your instructor will not summarize the reading, but will instead focus on salient issues arising from a particular chapter. In turn, you must participate in class and contribute your observations to the discussion. This is an active learning environment, so be prepared to engage with your instructor and your peers.

E-mail Policy

I respond to e-mails within 24 hours. If you have not heard from me in 48 hours, please resend your message. I do not check e-mail on the weekend.

Scholastic Offences, including Plagiarism

“Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are dir
