Academic Accommodations

Some language requires all requests for accommodation for a grade component or more to go to academic counselling. That same section, however, allows for (and encourages) instructors to deal directly with accommodation requests for grade components.

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to MentalHealth@Western <https://www.uwo.ca/health/psych/index.html>

the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site:

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea, or a passage of text from another author, they must acknowledge their debt by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy as above).

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detection of plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system.
